“ZERO TOLERANCE FOR RAGGING – PROMOTING RESPECT & DIGNITY”

Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme at AMJC

July 31, Chennai - Anti-Ragging Committee in association with Discipline Committee of Agurchand Manmull Jain College, Meenambakkam, organized a highly successful Anti-Ragging awareness programme on July 31, 2023 held at Gyan Bhavan for above 500 second & final year students. In the recent years, ragging has become a menace and causes fear and shock among the freshers in the educational institutions. The growing cases have led to make new law in order to curb ragging. The ‘Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme’ aimed to educate students about detrimental effects of ragging and promote zero – tolerance approach towards such behaviour.

Mr. R.K. Parthasarathy, Inspector of Police, S-3 Meenambakkam, Chennai; Ms. Vijayalakshmi, Crime Inspector of Police, Meenambakkam; Dr. B. E.Balaraman & Mrs. Fagumitha Kadhar, Greater Chennai Police, Kaaval Karangal and Mr. Ankit Agarwal, Clean to Green graced the occasion by their presence as special guests for the event and also honoured the college by giving momento to the Principal and the Dean. The college Principal Dr. N. Ventaramanan, opened the event with a heartfelt address, emphasizing the college's commitment to ensuring the safety & well-being of every student. The Principal Dr. N. Ventaramanan, Vice Principal Dr. B. Mahavir, Dean Dr. M. M. Ramya, felicitated the chief guests of the programme.

Mr. R K. Parthasarathy insisted on how ragging causes commotion among the public and how students can overcome ragging practices in the campus and imparted knowledge on the effects of ragging and how students suffer of shame, depression, isolation, demoralization and even commit suicide. Followed by “Ragging is Brutal, Ragging is Violence, Ragging is abusive, Ragging is harassment. Students should develop self-discipline and learn social responsibility to cognize the feelings and respect their juniors” said Mrs. Fagumitha Kadhar. As the event concluded, the overall objective of the awareness was accomplished and the college implements rigorous measures to combat ragging effectively
